
Title: MELINO'S NOTE

Author:

To Gustacio, wisest of Mages -- The Mundane
outsider, the Avatar,
carried a very rare and powerful weapon. The blade gained its considerable power from a Daemon bound within the blade by a most puissant enchantment. I would very much like to study the Mundane's blade.
Unfortunately, they released the Daemon from the sword in order to escape from the Mountains of Freedom. I wonder... how doth a mere Mundane obtain such a weapon? Now the blade needs to have its sorcerous energies
realigned if it is to ever contain another bound spirit. I could repair it if I could use thy flux analyzer. I know that the device was stolen from thee years ago. Hast thou ever recovered it?
